Our Stafford NAACP Juneteenth observance recognizes events that took place on June 19, 1865, when General Gordon Granger entered Galveston, Texas with his troops and read the Federal Freedom Proclamation. This marked the end of slavery for one of the last remaining groups of enslaved people following the end of the Civil War. Numerous celebrations have taken place annually since that time! We are inviting everyone in the greater Stafford, VA region to our 2023 Juneteenth event—which is back by popular demand!
